FOOD PROCESSING

Innovative Solutions. Intelligent Savings.

At Kimberly-Clark Professional, we understand that contamination control and cost control are equally important to the food processing industry. That's why each of our top-quality products is designed to deliver the height of performance, as well as generous bottom-line savings. Kimberly-Clark Professional provides systems that support the guidelines of HACCP, which ensures both food and employee safety. Our complete line of sanitation solutions is easy to use and drives improved food handling compliance. With a dedication to innovation and a commitment to excellence, Kimberly-Clark Professional is the one name you can depend on to put you in complete control of all of your food processing sanitation priorities.

Call your KCP representative today.

Plant Floor

Place KCP's extensive line of food processing sanitation products on the plant floor and you'll be protected from top to bottom in contamination control. Protect your people, your prep areas and your plant's performance. Choose from our full array of towels, wipers, surface sanitizers, skin care products and protective apparel.
